

K-LOVE is offering a very important service. The station offers news as well as a place to listen that is encouraging and positive. Please don't change the way they stations are made available to many communities. Recently while I was on vacation I knew where I could tune the radio and continue with the benefits of this station. Thank you for your consideration.